Heating Pad, a generously sized heating cushion

Looking for targeted warmth and muscle relief after a long, demanding day? The Heating Pad is your ideal companion, providing soothing heat to specific areas of the body while easing muscle tension.

With its generous dimensions of 75 x 40 cm and XL heating surface, it adapts easily to everyone's needs. Whether placed on the back, abdomen, legs or shoulders, it delivers steady, comforting warmth.

Heat that adapts to your needs

Choose from 9 temperature levels to find the intensity that suits you. Its automatic shut-off after 90 minutes ensures optimal safety, even if you forget to turn it off.

The Heating Pad also features overheat protection, offering complete peace of mind with every use.

Everyday comfort and softness

With its ultra-soft fabric, the Heating Pad provides instant comfort against the skin. Its plush texture invites you to relax and unwind at home.

The detachable control allows for easy care. The Heating Pad is machine washable and retains its softness after every use.

Certified fabric for your well-being

The Heating Pad is made from OEKO-TEX® STANDARD 100 certified fabric, ensuring it contains no harmful substances, even for sensitive skin.

In line with its sustainable approach, LANAFORM uses a fabric made from 100% recycled fibres. The control housing is also made from 100% recycled plastic, making the product both comfortable, safe, and environmentally responsible.
